

I PRINTED MY OWN BOOK AND YOU CAN TOO!

Let me guess. You, are, an aspiring writer looking to get - published. You probably know the obstacles you will face but in case you don't know the obstacles you will face allow me to tell you what you can expect as far as obstacles you will face; and whatnot:

FIRSTLY: You will need to find an agent. That can be hard as a lot of the time they don't even call you back after you send them eight letters and your book and you get angry and leave them messages.

SECONDLY: You will need to find a publisher. They can be even more difficult to talk to because they work for big corporations and if you show up at their building with a box of manuscripts and a dream they will call security and you will be strongarmed not nicely and told to leave the premises, restraining order, etc.

THREE: Even if you do succeed you will have to hand control of your "baby" to people who don't appreciate what you are giving them and don't treat it with the respect it deserves and they wants to edit it.

I WAS THERE! That's why I created Springsteen Universe Press.*

For far too long those "gatekeepers" frustrated the efforts of countless writers and prevented thousands upon thousands of books from ever seeing the light of day. But thanks to me, Springsteen Universe Press puts you in the driver's seat. Forget agents. Kiss those big publishing houses goodbye. You're in total control of your own publishing, distribution and marketing. And editing. And graphic design. And website design. If you have any credit card but Diner's Club, you can be a published author in mouse-clicks.

Whatever your needs, Springsteen Universe can help. From one copy to ten hundred or a thousand we can accommodate you. We'll also tell you where you can buy a cheap portable card table to set up your store near Union Square. You'll also get our helpful sales guide So, Now You Have 500 Copies of Your Sci-Fi Novel. Don't wait any longer! The next Pulitzer Peace Prize could be yours!

WHAT THEY SAYS
